Seniors in Sobriety – Yuma group of Alcoholics Anonymous in Yuma, Arizona, invites you to visit our community in the spring of next year for the 2012 SIS International Conference, March 14 – 17, 2012. Conference highlights will include speakers/panels and workshops especially directed to the older alcoholic both in and out of our fellowship, along with delicious meals, a gorgeous new venue on the Colorado River, and of course, fun! Please give the enclosed registration fliers wide distribution in your area, and thank you.

The fellowship of AA is strong in the Yuma community. Seniors in Sobriety – Yuma is entering its third year of service. During the winter months, many of our senior AA members spend several months enjoying our warm winter/spring climate.

Yuma is at the gateway of the mighty Colorado River, and historically was a major shipping depot for goods coming down the River. Today, irrigation and reclamation dams have changed the shipping channel into a thriving agricultural area that feeds a large part of the world's population.

The Yuma area offers many fine attractions and points of interest for tourists, visitors and residents. Whether you're a history buff, a river rat, love bird watching, or prefer off road exploring around nearby sand dunes, Yuma's scenic beauty and rich Western American history promise to deliver opportunities to enjoy a week in the sun.

We enthusiastically welcome you to spend a week with us in early spring where our desert in bloom is sure to provide you with a riot of colorful flowers to photograph!

Contact us by phone, e-mail, or at the address shown above. Call us at 928-247-0395 or drop a note to yuma2012SIS@gmail.com.
